

XM satellite radio has been a fantastic find for me. The programing is great and the local weather and traffic service has been extrememly helpful in avoiding traffic and weather problems. I now understand that some in Congress are trying to reduce the broadcasting priviledges of satellite radio. I hope that this is just a trial balloon because if my congressman or my Senators support such legislation, they will lose my vote regardless of their party affiliation.